Eit 1995 ist Sophie Taeuber-Arp (1889–1943) auf der Schweizer 50-Franken-Note abgebildet. Trotzdem blieb sie bis heute eine »bekannte Unbekannte«: Nur wenigen ist die ganze Breite ihres Werks vertraut. Dabei zählt sie zu den wichtigsten Schweizer Künstlerinnen des 20. Jahrhunderts. Unglaublich vielfältig begabt, schuf Taeuber-Arp in den Bereichen Design, Malerei, Textilien, Zeichnung, Plastik, Architektur, Tanz und Szenografie ein Oeuvre von höchster Qualität. Im souveränen Umgang mit Form, Farbe und Material entwickelte sie eine unverkennbare Handschrift. Neben einem ausgeprägten Bewusstsein für aktuelle Tendenzen kam darin auch ihre präzise künstlerische Haltung zum Ausdruck. 0Sophie Taeuber-Arp – Heute ist Morgen erkundet die gattungsübergreifende Denk- und Vorgehensweise der Künstlerin. Erstmals kann für dieses Buch auch auf Bestände privater Sammlungen zurückgegriffen werden, die bisher nicht zugänglich waren. Und anders als fast alle bisherigen Publikationen betrachtet diese neue Monografie die freie und die angewandte Kunst Taeuber-Arps gleichwertig nebeneinander. Mehr als 200 Arbeiten machen die enorme Vielfalt ihres Werks und ihre Pionierleistung für die Moderne erlebbar: Ihr Heute verwies immer schon auf ein Morgen. 0Exhibition: Aargauer Kunsthaus, Aarau, Switzerland (23.08-16.11.2014) / Kunsthalle Bielefeld, Germany (12.12.2014-15.03.2015).

Human ageing is always subject to cultural interpretation. The continuous process of maturing and decline thus only becomes recognisable and significant with the idea of life stages. Here, topoi such as those of the simple child or the wise grey head as habitual patterns of understanding and thought reveal the social and cultural knowledge of life stages in tradition and change. The papers in this volume examine sources from biblical tradition right through to the 21st century and enquire into the argumentative force of the topic, with which apparently fixed ways of thinking can vary and thus open new perspectives on life stages.

Peter Abelard's autobiography, the Historia calamitatum, is one of the best-known medieval texts, especially because of the story of his love for Heloise which it recounts. In recent decades, there was so much controversy about the authenticity of the documents concerning Abelard and Heloise that the critical interpretation of the texts was relegated to the sidelines. The present volume provides a way out of this impasse. In it, the famous text is subjected to a series of exemplary analyses from the perspectives of seven different 20th century literary theories (aesthetics of reception, Foucault, Gender Studies, Rhetorical Stylistic Analysis, Psychology of Literature, Cultural Studies, Deconstruction). The analyses are preceded by the Latin text of the Historia calamitatum with a modern German translation. This is thus the first time that the Historia calamitatum has been presented in a bilingual edition.
