Drawing on a vast range of government documents, personal correspondence, and the memoirs of merchants, missionaries, and travelers, Michael B. What Good Thing Must I Do to Enter Into Eternal Life? Almost 2,000 years ago, a rich younger ruler asked the Messiah this question. Messiah's response was revolutionary. He simply commanded the young ruler to go onto perfection. This verse and countless others prove this statement - perfection is the only manner in which we will enter into eternal life. From this reality evolves 2 central questions: 1. What does it mean to be perfect? 2. How do we achieve perfection? Quite simply, perfection is measured by our success at executing the will of the Father. We are only able to do so by first achieving holiness. By analyzing the 16 primary degrees of holiness, we will understand every facet of perfection, as well as deduce the correlation between all the principle components of scriptural theology. For example, what are your views on sin? Do you know that sinners can not inherit eternal life? Do you know that the Holy Spirit gives us power to make a clean break from both sin and our sinful nature? Furthermore, have you ever considered the lack of miracles, healing, signs, and wonders in our world? The Gospel is filled with them, although only a handful of believers wrought these works. As for us, we have millions of believers worldwide and still aren't doing a fraction of their works. Needless to say, the church circuit is filled with many spiritual deficits that will only begin to be resolved when each member fulfills the Greater Commission and goes on to perfection. In this book, I will address many of these deficits and show how they are only resolved by holiness. By the end of it, you will be prepared to set your foot upon the path to perfection and become heir to eternal life.

The present volume is the fourth in a five-volume study of church doctrine. The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine: Canon, God, Creation, Reconciliation, and Redemption. The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters, which stresses the ecumenical, global, and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness. The purpose of this fourth volume is to celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ as the treasure of the church and the power of God for the reconciliation of the world. The gospel bears witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and calls for faith in him as the free gift of forgiveness and new life. The gospel is constantly in motion, tearing down every barrier of human bigotry and prejudice, not only forming a new society, but reforming the church itself. Church doctrine is not a luxury, but a necessity for the living community of faith, by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord.

The Gospels record that Jesus purported to forgive sins. What significance would such a claim have had for his contemporaries and what would the implications have been for his identity as a first-century popular prophet? Tobias Hägerland answers these questions and more as he investigates the forgiveness of sins in the mission of the historical Jesus. The Gospels are interpreted within the context of first-century Judaism as part of a broader reconstruction of Jesus' career as a healer and prophet, and rhetorical criticism is introduced as a tool for explaining how the gospel tradition about Jesus and forgiveness developed. Hägerland combines detailed exegesis and rigorous methodology with a holistic view of the historical Jesus, evaluating recent scholarship about first-century Jewish prophets and utilizing previously neglected textual evidence to present a thorough investigation of the theology of forgiveness in early Judaism and primitive Christianity.

This book helps the Body of Christ come to a deeper understanding of warfare coupled with gaining greater appreciation for what is at the heart of the war. Readers gain valuable insight into this important facet of the faith journey Christians undertake. God's Chosen: Understanding Spiritual Warfare offers Christians the basis to learn and use the means God affords, namely His full armor equipped with His strength and mighty power. Believers prepare and fight triumphantly against evil and wicked forces by putting on His full armor. God equips them to fight offensively and defensively. Knowing Jesus fixed the fight in believers' favor help to confidently oppose the enemy and remain faithful to God. Through conscious engagement in this fight believers stand firmly winning against all odds. In 2005, during prayer, the Holy Spirit inspired me to write this book on spiritual warfare. I was going through a precarious time and as usual, I sought God in prayer and study of the Word. The Holy Spirit led me to Ephesians 6:10-18. As I studied and meditated, God moved me to begin writing on the subject of warfare. During research and study, I discovered there are not enough books recording this phase of the Christian's journey. Therefore, I saw the need to press through varied attacks to produce this work.

Dear Reader, In God's original plan, He desires that believers in Christ Jesus be filled with the Holy Spirit, be energetic, strong, courageous, prosperous and mighty people on the face of the earth. 1 John 3:2a says 'Beloved, now are we the sons of God...' This scripture says 'now' not tomorrow but 'now' are we the sons of God. He wants to see His traits actively working in every one of His children! We are meant to be a kind of Him, an essential part of Him, sons (and daughters) of The Most High God; powerful, strong, wholesome, compassionate, generous and kind! A strong and mighty God cannot produce weak, feeble, weary and misdirected children. That it 'seems' so, or we feel that way means there is a gap that needs to be filled quickly! Cycles of defeat, setbacks are not compatible with our new nature and so they must not be found lingering within our daily experience! When The Living God redeemed us through Faith in Christ Jesus, He placed us above all His creatures. James 1:18 says 'Of His own will begat He us with the word of truth that we should be a kind of firstfruits of all His creatures.' We were saved by grace through faith. Our Christian experience effectively begins by faith! The interesting thing also is that according to God's design, we are to retain and maintain our new life also by growing faith! Habakkuk 2:4 says 'Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith'. Hebrews 11:1 says, 'Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.' This scripture makes us understand that faith is a substance. Faith is actually a 'spiritual substance'. Just as in the natural, we have physical substances or material, likewise in the spirit, we have spiritual substances or material. Faith is a spiritual material that represents the things we ask for in the natural. It is a spiritual equivalent available in the spirit realm. It abides within our spirit and recognised in the spirit realm. Also, like we refer to rich persons as man of substance or woman of substance in terms of material wealth, when we grow our faith significantly, we can likewise be referred to as men or women of the substance of faith! The place where faith is developed is in our 'spirit', what the Bible refers to mostly as our 'heart'. The world of science refers to our spirit as our 'subconscious mind'. It is a powerful element of our being that is so vast, its resources cannot be measured by human means. We receive faith into our spirit primarily through our soul. Our soul comprises our mind, will, emotions and intellect. Faith does not reside in our minds because our minds can be quite volatile because it can be susceptible to the pressures of our day to day activities. Our soul collects the word of God that becomes faith in our spirit. As our minds encounter the living word of God, so faith is actually received, directed, stored and formed in our spirit by hearing, and hearing the word of God (Romans 5:17). As we hear the Word of God, and accept it as our reality, faith begins to form in our hearts. The spiritual substance begins to come together to make up what is pleasing and acceptable to God. (Hebrews 11:6 says But without faith, it is impossible to please Him for He who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him) One of the challenges however is that, this kind of spiritual substance comes or goes. The substance comes when we keep hearing the Word of God and allow it to build up in our spirit. The substance goes away when we stop hearing the word of God. The 'hearing' part demands diligence! When we keep hearing the Word of God, our faith becomes fully formed and comes full cycle to produce the corresponding physical manifestation. My prayer is that you find help within the pages of this book to turn around 'difficult' situations and develop consistency growing faith in your life!

The power of faith and belief is an amazing thing. As children, we are somehow able to believe that anything is possible, which allows an unseen unlimited power to work on our behalf. However, as we grow and learn we begin to put limits on our faith and belief by believing only those things which we believe are reasonable. When we do this, we also limit the unlimited power that continuously works on our behalf through childlike faith and belief. In this story, we see that the faith and belief of a child is able to unleash limitless power to do a thing that only a child could believe is possible. If we could as grown-ups learn how to keep our childlike faith throughout our entire life time to believe that all things are possible, imagine what the unlimited power of faith and belief in the impossible could do to supply us with an endless supply of possibilities. The life of a little bear risen up by the faith of a child who believes that all things are possible shows us that when we can believe in the impossible, we too can unleash an unlimited power to make all things possible for us. But it is only possible if we can believe that all things are possible with a God of unlimited power who continuously works on our behalf!

Bringing together both established and emerging scholars from critical and cultural theory, literature, philosophy, and theology, this book examines the intersection of economics and religion. In this issue of The Ministry, Brother Lee gives a summary of the fellowship concerning the practice of the new way under the Lord's new leading from October 1984 to May 1986. At that time the Lord gave us a fresh leading in order to bring in an increase in number in all the localities and to spread His work over the whole earth. The Lord's leading aims at a total deliverance of His recovery from the element, essence, background, environment, and tradition of Christianity. The first crucial element of the new way is the building up of the meetings in every believer's home. Delivering the gospel, the truth, and the meetings to people's homes is the best way to build the church locally in the Lord's recovery and to bring in the spread and increase universally. The other two crucial elements of the new way are the teaching of the truth and keeping the Lord's word as the center of all our various meetings. The next three messages are a continuation of the Crystallization-study of the Epistle to the Hebrews given in the winter training of 1998. Message Nineteen shows clearly that the will of God is to have Christ as the replacement for all the offerings in the Old Testament so that we may enjoy Him as everything in living and practicing the Body life for the building up of the Body of Christ as the organism of the Triune God. Message Twenty reveals that Jesus is the Author of faith, the Originator, the Inaugurator, the source, and the cause of faith. The faith of the believers is actually not their own faith but Christ entering into them to be their faith. Our believing is our appreciation of Christ as a reaction to His attraction. Message Twenty-one shows us that faith is the unique way to enjoy Christ in His heavenly ministry and to experience all the bequests in the new testament. It is the unique way to carry out God's New Testament economy. In the last section, we include two letters from Poland and Mexico, respectively, concerning the Lord's move in these two countries.

Unlimited Faith is a Faith based book that gives you principles on how to win in this Life. Many times we look at faith as just a word, or just something to say because it sounds good. But faith is more than just a word it is the way of life. Everything you see around you was created by faith. Let's start with the first creator God, he created us in his own image so we can be just like him. But some of us walk around like we are lost and do not know who we are. The first step; we should take is by getting to know our creator. Then we will have a pretty good idea of who we are and what we are truly purpose for. This starts with us being willing and obedient to God. By getting to know him and putting our pride to the side, and to know that we are in need of him daily to survive in this life. This book is very significant, because it was written in a time of a world crisis. People are dying daily with a global pandemic and we need that hope which is in Jesus Christ. That is the only thing that is more real than this life. Tomorrow is definitely not promised to us. We all have to leave here one day, But some of us are supposed to be here to change the world. To make a greater impact in this world through Jesus Christ. I know that I am one of these people, do you know that you are one of them too? Sometimes we stop the path that God has destined, because we want to do it our own way. Which is the hardest way to do it. The reason is; that you cannot see in the dark. God is your light to be able to unlock things that are on the inside of you that you never thought were there. You need to understand; that you are the missing link to other people's lives so they can be all that God has created them to be. There is so much more to this life that you have not discovered, so this book will give you insight on how faith works and how it is supposed to operate on a daily basis. Also I share some things that I have gone through and how I was able to get out through the power of faith. There is also a chapter in this book that other people share their own testimonies of faith and how God has brought them through. So let me take you on a step by step journey of faith. Sometimes it takes one tweak on the path that we are on to get to our destination. This is a time that we all need encouragement and change. This is a time that we need to stop using the word faith; but have it, live it, breathe it and walk in the UNLIMITED. Let this book give you insight on the next move you will make without apology. Welcome to Unlimited Faith.

Faith is a firm, cordial belief in the veracity of God, in all the declarations of his word; or a full and affectionate confidence in the certainty of those things which God has declared. Faith is an affectionate practical confidence in the testimony of God. No man receive anything from God without faith. Salvation is free but is obtainable by faith. Your mind will be renewed and enlightened by this teaching of faith as you talk a walk through this book.

When the great military hero and world conqueror, Napoleon Bonaparte, lived in exile on the island of St. Helena, he declared that Jesus was so supremely great that it is impossible to make comparisons between Him and any other being in the world. "I know men," said Napoleon, "and I tell you that Jesus is not a man. Everything in Him amazes me. His spirit outreaches mine, and His will confounds me." It is wonderful that a man like Napoleon, whose natural arms were fire and the sword, should be so deeply impressed by the life and teachings of the lowly Nazarene. But Napoleon is not alone in his admiration and love. Throughout the nineteen centuries that have passed since the Master lived upon the earth, men of every clime have learned to know Him and to worship Him. Today there are but few peoples known to mankind that do not acknowledge Jesus the Christ. The wonderful story of His life has thrilled both the young and the old the world over since first it was told. The wisdom, the justice, and the loving kindness of all His teachings, have inspired the nations to make them better. No other man in all the history of the world has exerted so profound an influence on the lives of his fellowmen, and on the laws that govern them. Now, you have read in other books the story of the life of Jesus. You know when and where He was born; how God the Father protected His Son; how he grew to manhood, waxing strong in spirit; how He taught, and wrought miracles amongst His own people; how they rejected Him and crucified Him; and how He rose from death and returned to His Father in heaven. It is a strangely beautiful story. But we do not want to retell it here. It must be our purpose, in this little book, to tell as interestingly as may be what Jesus taught. Certainly, it must be interesting to know something of the teachings of the Man who has made so profound an impression upon the history of the world. We want to know what the life-work of Jesus means to us and to our fellowmen. And to begin, we must try to find out what Jesus Himself thought about His mission on the earth. "Ask anything in my name, I will do it." (John 14:14) Charles H. Spurgeon supplies daily deposits of God's promises into the reader's personal bank of faith. He urges the reader to view each Bible promise as a check written by God, which can be cashed by personally endorsing it and receiving the gift it represents!

In this warm and informative book, the author brings his deft touch and great sensitivity to the foremost prayer of the day. Every phrase of Shemoneh Esrei is treated with selections from thousands of years of Jewish thought. It's a masterful blend of ideas, anecdotes, and inspiration.

God's Grace Empowers You To Do The Impossible! You have probably heard grace defined as God's unmerited favor and that is absolutely true, but it is so much more. Grace is the power that God willingly gives us to help us do what we could never do on our own. When God said to Paul, "My grace is sufficient for you," He was giving Paul His power to be set free from the thorn that was buffeting him. However, Paul had to understand how to use God's grace in order to be set free. In this fresh new outlook on grace, Dr. Larry Ollison shares how to approach the throne of grace with confidence and boldness and find the power to overcome things you could never overcome in your own strength-even works of the flesh. Grace is not a license to sin, but rather it empowers us to be able to say "no" to sin and temptation. In this book you will come away with a deeper understanding of this wonderful gift that God has given to the Church. His free gift of grace is sufficient and more than enough to meet any situation you face.
